Around the clock support

Available also outside of our office hours!

Most of the time, plant failures can be rectified via telephone support. True to the motto „time is money“, we introduce the possibility to reach our technicians outside of office hours, starting in 2015.

Grübl Automatisierungstechnik GmbH's 24/7 support provides you with around-the-clock-service on 365 days a year. Permanent availability of trained technicians can minimise your plant's rate of failures, thus saving you money.

This is how you become a 24/7 support customer

Should you be interested, please fill in the attached application form and return it to us via fax or e-mail. After that, you will receive your individual 24/7 support offer. You can also find the application form on www.gruebl-automation.at
